

RELATIVES

2015-2016 HUMANITIES CENTER

WHODUNIT?

Thursday, October 8, 2015 - 4:10pm
Williams Hall, Global Commons

GIL ANIDJAR
Columbia University

JORGENSEN'S SHADOWS

Joint Event with WGSS
Thursday, October 22, 2015 - 4:10pm
Linderman Library, Scheler Humanities Forum, 200

C. RILEY SNORTON
Cornell University

INTIMACY, ESTRANGEMENT AND TRANSNATIONAL TIES

Thursday, November 19, 2015 - 4:10pm
Williams Hall, Global Commons

NAYAN SHAH
University of Southern California

THE MULTIPLE MEANINGS OF MARRIAGE EQUALITY

Thursday, February 4, 2016 - 4:10pm
Linderman Library, Scheler Humanities Forum, 200

NAOMI CAHN
George Washington University

THE MANY CAPTIVITIES OF ESTHER WHEELWRIGHT

Thursday, February 25, 2016 - 4:10pm
Williams Hall, Global Commons

ANN LITTLE
Colorado State University

THE BLOOMSBURY GROUP AS QUEER FAMILY

Thursday, March 10, 2016 - 4:10pm
Linderman Library, Scheler Humanities Forum, 200

CHRISTOPHER REED
Pennsylvania State University

THE TROUBLE IS MARRIAGE

March 21-23, 2016
Feminisms Beyond the Secular Conference

SRIMATI BASU
University of Kentucky

LOVE AND THE LAW

Thursday, April 14, 2016 - 4:10pm
Linderman Library, Scheler Humanities Forum, 200

ELIZABETH BRAKE
Arizona State University

Our theme this year is "Relatives," the forms kinship relations take and have taken in a global context. Forged through marriage, consanguinity (whether metaphorical or visceral), medical technologies, sex, or geography, such relationships shape the terms of social hierarchy and equality, by granting cultural, political, and/or legal privilege to some and denying it to others. This series asks both how normative family forms have taken shape and what alternative interdependencies have looked like.

For additional information:
<http://humanitiesctr.cas2.lehigh.edu>
610-758-4649

LEHIGH
UNIVERSITY